

PUBLIC DATA COLLECTION SHEET

If you see any incident of dead animals, please contact the Guam Department of Agriculture at 735-3987 or call 911. Do not touch the animals unless you can do so with gloves or tools. Never touch a dead animal with your bare hand. If animals can be held, please place them in a plastic bag and refrigerate (preferred) or freeze them. . If animals are picked up, please contact Department of Agriculture, EPA, or the Marine Laboratory. As best as you can, please answer the following questions.

Information about the dead animals

Date _____ Time _____

Location _____

How many animals dead (estimate)? _____

Was there an odor from the water? _____

Was there an unusual color in the water? _____

Was there anything on shore (trash, soil, containers, etc.)?

Were any animals not dead but acting unusually (swimming funny, gasping)?

Any other observations?

Reporting party contact information

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Village: _____ Email: _____